Wharekura ki Polyfest:

To support our tamariki standing on thursday our remaining wharekura students which includes Kōpū will be travelling over to Manukau to watch Te Roopu Manukura.

The cost per child is $10 to go towards the bus.

Akongā are permitted to bring money to purchase Kai on the day from the multiple vendors, but packed lunch will also be fine.

Departing Kura: 10am

Departing Manukau: 3:30pm

Estimate Arrival to Kura 4:30/5pm

Kaiako in Charge: Matua Joseph Kapea

Please remember that the consent forms are up and waiting to be complete on the Skool Loop App.

Te Roopu Manukura:

Our Kaihaka departed Kura this morning to head over to Puau where they will spend the next few days in preparation for their performance on Thursday. All whānau are invited to a special kai tahi / dinner on Wednesday night. We are asking whānau to bring a salad to go with our BBQ. A normal size salad please. For those whānau that are not able to collect their child's gears/belongings from Puau, Whaea Alicia and Whaea Tarani will ensure that their belongings are taken to Manukau to the Polyfest competition.
