NGĀ RAUEMI KURA - STATIONARY

With our early start to this year, our Senior Leadership team have decided to purchase the basic stationary for all akonga this year.

The Kura will provide all books and pencils and or pens for our akonga.

This will also include other basic stationery items such as glue sticks, erasers and colouring felts/pencils.

KURA UNIFORM

A kura uniform list for each syndicate can be found here. For those in Tau 7 up, they will be moving into wharekura uniform this year.

PŌ MŌHIOHIO

Our Pō Mōhiohio will be held in Week 2 of this Term.

One evening for Wharekura and one evening for Kura Teina.

This is a great information evening for our Whanau to have an understanding on what the life for their tamaiti will look like at Kura this Year.

Wharekura - Monday 3rd Feb 4.30 - 6.00pm

Kura Teina - Tuesday 4th Feb 4.30 - 6.00pm

KEY INFORMATION

RESERVED PARKING SPACES

Please do not park in the first 10 car parks from the top gate. These car parks are reserved and leased to businesses around our kura.

They also provide our kura whānau $20,000.00 each year to help with supporting our childrens' education at kura.

TRANSPORT ALLOWANCE (PROOF OF ADDRESS/BANK ACCOUNT)

Whānau are required to supply the Tari with a copy of the following documentation;

1. Bank statement for your nominated bank account (with the account name and account number only)
2. Most recent proof of address (with your name and current address)

If you are a new whānau at our Kura and have not sent this information to the Tari, please make sure to send it asap via email to tari@terakipaewhenua.school.nz.

CASHLESS KURA

Our Kura will remain cashless again for 2025. All payments must be made via eftpos here in the tari or via bank transfer.
